

Bourbon in the Bluegrass

The City of Union is thrilled to host this new community event offering the Union of Kentucky music and spirits!

Bourbon in the Bluegrass will feature Kentucky bourbon (including Boone County Distilling and Neeley Family Distilling), live bluegrass music by Big South Fork and Licking Pike Ramblers, Braxton Brewing Company, Redmans Farm and Winery, and food trucks (Sweets & Meats BBQ, Slice is Right, Texas Joe, and Cones are Yummy).

All food and beverage items will be available for purchase (must be age 21 and over to purchase or consume alcohol).

Hay rides, a petting zoo, and face painter ($5 per face) will be available for some family friendly fun.

Bourbon in the Bluegrass will take place at Farm Haven, a privately owned property in unincorporated Boone County located at 10259 Tadpole Lane, offering a beautiful countryside venue. Event parking is available at Union Presbyterian Church (10259 US 42) and Union Park (10165 Old Union Road).

Visit www.cityofunionky.org for more information.