

Social media public comment policy

The City of Union, KY shares information, images, and video with the public through external social media websites. Comments made by the public to these sites are reviewed and, while comments will not be edited by City of Union personnel, a comment may be deleted if it violates the comment policy described below:

- Malicious or harmful software.
- Comments posted by automatic software programs.
- Advertisements, promotions, or solicitations of a commercial product or service.
- Confidential, sensitive, or private information.
- Obscene, indecent or profane language, pictures and/or videos.
- Threats of violence or to public safety.
- Copyrighted or trademarked materials in violation of state or federal law.
- Comments not related to the posted topic for the City of Union social media page or post.
- Disruptively repetitive content.
- Violates any local, state, or federal laws and/or is otherwise unlawful.

This comment policy is subject to amendment or modification at any time.

Open records

City of Union, KY social media accounts are subject to the Kentucky Open Records Act. Any content maintained in a social media format that is related to City of Union business, including a list of subscribers and posted communications, is a public record. Content posted or submitted for posting is subject to public disclosure under the Kentucky Open Records Act.

Questions or concerns

Questions or concerns regarding the City of Union, KY social media activity and/or this Customer Use Policy should be submitted to Jaime Lyons at jlyons@cityofunionky.org.

To contest the removal of a comment, the user must submit to the City of Union at jlyons@cityofunionky.org a written statement providing grounds for publication of the comment. Requests shall be responded to within a reasonable time.