Breakfast with Santa at Union Fire Station

It was a jolly morning at the Union Fire Station! It was a delightful morning with delicious breakfast filled with donuts, hot cocoa, crafts, & more. Kids were able to ride on firetrucks and Santa was there to listen to all holiday dreams and pose for memorable pictures. We thank all that joined us and all sponsors and donors that helped make our event the best ever.

December Public Works
Updates

From Our Families to Yours, We Wish You Happy Holidays & a Prosperous New Year!

Have you spotted the new trees of Union? The City of Union has partnered with the Boone County Urban Forestry Commission to plant 81 new trees around the city. Some trees were replaced in Union Rice Cemetery and many along the Mt. Zion corridor and Rt 42. Public Works Department has been working diligently to beautify and maintain our city. We appreciate all the hard work that will make our city great for generations.
